Under the auspices of Mathematics Association, Jamal Mohamed College conducted a Special lecture programme on 09.01.2013 at NBAG Auditorium.

Major. M. Aravandi, Former Professor of Mathematics and Former HOD of Computer Science, Jamal Mohamed College delivered a lecture on “Aptitude and Altitude”. He narrated his life experiences and talked about great Mathematicians. Also he stressed the importance of Mathematics for day to day life and advise the students to work hard to reach greater heights.

HOD of Mathematics Dr. S.Ismail Mohideen welcomed the gathering and Dr.A.Solairaju, Vice President of the Association introduced the Chief Guest. Revered Secretary & Correspondent Dr. A.K.Khaja Nazeemudeen and Treasurer Hajee. K.A.Khaleel Ahmed Sahib graced the occasion. The President of the Mathematics Association Hajee Dr. R. Khader Mohideen, Principal delivered the Presidential address and encouraged the students for their active participation in academic and extra curricular activities. Dr.P.N.P.Mohamed Sahapatheen, Vice Principal and Dr.A.M.Mohamed Sindhasha, Additional Vice Principal offered felicitations.

Finally Mr. Muzibur Rahman, II M.Sc, Joint Secretary of Mathematics Association proposed a vote of thanks.
To

The Editor

Sir,

I am herewith enclosed the press news and photo. Kindly publish this message in your esteemed news paper.

Head of the Department