

Dear Sir/ Madam,

Sub: Formal Invitation for the Social Theatre 10' to contest on International Anti Slavery Day - reg.

Jamal Mohamed College (Autonomous) is the citadel of various sports, extra-curricular and co-curricular activities which have brought many laurels to it's credit. The conferment of autonomy to the college by UGC and the reaccreditation of the college with the highest Grade 'A' (3.6 CGPA out of 4 Points) by NAAC are the added feathers in the cap of Jamal. This college strives to be an eye opener for dynamic change and the PG. Department of Social Work, acts as an agent to tap the potential of all young minds with the mission of providing good and quality professional social work education with three specializations, viz., Community development, Clinical Social Work and Human Resource Management.

We are delighted to notify that our department and DEW(Development and Education for Workers), a social service organisation which works for Bonded labour, jointly organize a lively event to contradict on International Anti Slavery Day on 13th December, 2010 with a cultural meet Social Theatre 10'. The programme is intended to provide awareness about the fusion of issues and challenges pertaining to the slavery systems like bonded labour. Therefore we extend our invitation on behalf of the department for you to join hands with us and make this program a grand success.

Kindly find out the events and the rules and regulations of the programme attached, we would appreciate if you could encourage all your students to attend the events. Soliciting your august presence.

Yours faithfully,
Dr. A. M. MOHAMED SINDHASHA
