The Rules of the Game

1. Chess is played between two players: White and Black.
2. The two players alternate turns (White always moves first), moving one piece at a time with the ultimate goal of capturing the enemy king.
3. There are six pieces in chess, each moves in a unique way.
4. All pieces do share some common traits. For instance, no piece is allowed to land on a square occupied by a friendly piece.
5. If a piece lands on a square occupied by an enemy piece, that enemy is captured and removed from the board.
6. Also, with the exception of the knight, pieces are not permitted to jump over other pieces.
