Dear Vigyanian,

Thank you very much for your goodwill and support to VIPNET, the network of Indian Science Clubs, started by Vigyan Prasar since 1998. Vigyan Prasar is an autonomous organization of the Department of Science & Technology, Government of India. We propose to make it your forum where you could do many things and exchange ideas with other clubs and like-minded bodies across the country. Like each of you have some dream of making your club a unique one in your area, we also hope to go ahead with new and innovative projects never carried out before. For this, we need constant interaction with you.

After going through your application/re-registration forms, supported by other necessary documents, we are now in a position to give you the Unique Authorisation Number, which should be quoted now onwards in all your communication with us. Herby, we are sending you the Certificate of Affiliation and other material from Vigyan Prasar to build your club library that would enable you to expand your activities.

Your Unique Authorisation Number VP- TN 0056. We would also like you to note that you would be required to send reports of your activities to us on a regular monthly basis. This will help us to know that your club is active. Secondly, the newsletter is meant for all members of the club. So please ensure that it is circulated amongst them. You are also invited to contribute your ideas, activities and pieces of information in this newsletter so that these can be shared by other member clubs as well.

Best wishes to all of you!!

Yours sincerely

(Dr. Arvind C. Ranade)
